The novel begins with Lionel Verney, a young squire who lives in the English countryside. Lionel is a kind and generous young man, but he is also very shy. He has never been able to bring himself to speak to Ethelinda, the daughter of the neighboring lord, whom he has loved from afar for many years.

One day, Lionel is out riding when he comes across Ethelinda in the forest. She is lost and alone, and Lionel is able to help her find her way back home. Ethelinda is grateful to Lionel for his help, and she begins to see him in a new light. Over time, the two of them fall in love.

However, their love is not without its challenges. Ethelinda's father does not approve of Lionel, and he forbids her from seeing him. Lionel and Ethelinda must find a way to be together, even if it means defying her father.
