A Tapestry of Celtic Lore and Arthurian Legends

The Pendragon Chronicles Prequel Novel transports us to the mystical land of Avalon, where the ancient Celtic gods and goddesses weave their enchantment upon the mortal realm. Here, we encounter the legendary figures of Arthurian lore: the noble King Arthur, the wise wizard Merlin, and the valiant Knights of the Round Table.

Delve into the pages as the prequel unveils the hidden history of the Pendragons, a family destined to safeguard the realm from the forces of darkness. Meet Uther Pendragon, the charismatic warrior who wields the mighty sword Excalibur, and his enigmatic queen, Igraine, a sorceress of immense power.

The Shadow of Evil Rises

As the Pendragons ascend to prominence, a sinister threat emerges from the depths of the underworld. Morgaine, the wicked sorceress and half-sister to Arthur, plots to seize power and plunge the realm into chaos. With her dark minions at her command, she challenges the very existence of the Pendragons and their noble ideals.

In the face of overwhelming adversity, the Pendragons rally their forces and prepare for an epic confrontation that will shape the destiny of Avalon. Knights of valor and archers of unmatched skill unite under the banner of the Pendragon, ready to defend their land against the onslaught of evil.

The Birth of a Legend

Through vivid battle sequences and heart-pounding adventures, the prequel novel traces the origins of the legendary Round Table. Witness the rise of Sir Lancelot, the greatest knight of the realm, and the formation of the unbreakable fellowship that would inspire countless tales of chivalry and heroism.

Uncover the secrets of Merlin's enigmatic prophecies and the ancient magic that flows through the veins of the Pendragons. Experience the forging of Excalibur, the invincible sword destined to play a pivotal role in the upcoming struggle against darkness.
